"Hachijo" - Traditional taiko style from the island of Hachijo in Japan. Drum is placed horizontally on a higher stand.
 "Odaiko" - Literally "Big Drum," the class will use the biggest drums in the facility in a style that faces the drum directly.
 "Naname" - Slant style, taiko is placed on a slanted stand and hit from the side. Allows for more taiko choreography.
 Intermediate Class open to those who have taken 4 fundamental courses (1 year at LATI)
